Page Format

This page format is used for all wiki pages, if applicable.

Headings without corresponding text can be deleted.

Apple tree

Definition

A apple tree is a tree {superordinate concept} that bears apples {factors that distiguishes a apple tree from other trees}.
See rules for definition http://knowledgemanagement.wiki/index.php?title=Definition

Synonyms

See http://knowledgemanagement.wiki/index.php?title=Synonym

Abbreviations

See http://knowledgemanagement.wiki/index.php?title=Abbreviation

Notes

See http://knowledgemanagement.wiki/index.php?title=Note

Relations

See http://knowledgemanagement.wiki/index.php?title=Relation

Examples:

- Subordinates of an apple tree are a Golden Delicious apple trees, a Pink Lady apple trees.
- Apple tree is part of an orhard.
- Parts of an apple tree are: apples, trunk, branches, roots, etc.
- An apple tree is owned by a fruit grower or any othere association.
- Instances of an apple tree are: apple tree 1, apple tree 2, etc.

Lifecycle

See http://knowledgemanagement.wiki/index.php?title=Life_cycle

For example:

- Plant an apple tree
- Nurish an apple tree
- Harvast an apple tree
- Cut down an apple tree

Characteristics

See http://knowledgemanagement.wiki/index.php?title=Characteristic For example:

- Health of an apple tree
- Age of an apple tree
- Maturity of an apple tree

Example(s)

References

See http://knowledgemanagement.wiki/index.php?title=Reference

From:
https://datamanagement.wiki/ - Data Management Wiki

Permanent link:
https://datamanagement.wiki/wiki/pageformat?rev=1676204234

Last update: 2024/03/08 13:33