

Master data

Definition

Master data is a data category held by an organisation which describes objects that it needs to reference in order to perform its transactions.

Relations

Instances of master data are: customers, suppliers, products, services, employees and assets.

Reference

DAMA NL (2020). Data concepts for Data Quality Dimensions (DSC). Research paper.
<https://www.dama-nl.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/09/DCS-Data-Concept-System-DDQ-Research-Paper-version-1.2-d.d.-3-Sept-2020.pdf>

From:

<https://datamanagement.wiki/> - Data Management Wiki

Permanent link:

https://datamanagement.wiki/data_concept/master_data?rev=1686426116

Last update: 2024/03/08 13:33