Register

Definition

A register is a data set designated by the government in which vital data about citizens, residents, organisations, vehicles, topography, buildings, and adresses can be centrally maintained.

Relation(s)

A register is subordinate to data set and [data category.

Reference(s)

DAMA NL (2020). Data concepts for Data Quality Dimensions (DSC). Research paper. https://www.dama-nl.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/09/DCS-Data-Concept-System-DDQ-Research-Paper-version-1.2-d.d.-3-Sept-2020.pdf

From:
https://datamanagement.wiki/ - Data Management Wiki

Permanent link:
https://datamanagement.wiki/data_concept/register?rev=1676221351

Last update: 2024/03/08 13:33