Register

Definition

A register is a dataset designated by the government in which vital data about objects are centrally maintained.

Relation(s)

A register is subordinate to dataset and data category.
Intances of registers are registers of citizens, organisations, vehicles, topography, buildings, and adresses.

Reference(s)

DAMA NL (2020). Data concepts for Data Quality Dimensions (DSC). Research paper. https://www.dama-nl.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/09/DCS-Data-Concept-System-DDQ-Research-Paper-version-1.2-d.d.-3-Sept-2020.pdf

From:
https://datamanagement.wiki/ - Data Management Wiki

Permanent link:
https://datamanagement.wiki/data_concept/register?rev=1676465948

Last update: 2024/03/08 13:33