Register

Definition

A register is a dataset in which vital data about objects are centrally maintained.

Relations

Register	is subtype of	dataset
Register	is subtype of	data category
Register	is supertype of	business glossary

Instances of registers that are centrally maintained by govermenent are registers of citizens, companies, vehicles, topography, buildings, and adresses.

Reference

DAMA NL (2020). Data concepts for Data Quality Dimensions (DSC). Research paper. https://www.dama-nl.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/09/DCS-Data-Concept-System-DDQ-Research-Paper-version-1.2-d.d.-3-Sept-2020.pdf

From:
https://datamanagement.wiki/ - Data Management Wiki

Permanent link:
https://datamanagement.wiki/data_concept/register?rev=1687025102

Last update: 2024/03/08 13:33