

Transactional data

Definition

Transactional data is data that describes an event that takes place as an organisation conducts its activities.

Relation(s)

Transactional data is subtype of data and data category

Example(s)

- An offer
- An order
- A contract
- A delivery
- A payment

Reference(s)

DAMA NL (2020). Data concepts for Data Quality Dimensions (DSC). Research paper.
<https://www.dama-nl.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/09/DCS-Data-Concept-System-DDQ-Research-Paper-version-1.2-d.d.-3-Sept-2020.pdf>

From:
<https://datamanagement.wiki/> - Data Management Wiki

Permanent link:
https://datamanagement.wiki/data_concept/transactional_data?rev=1678471672

Last update: 2024/03/08 13:33